GRAY ENAMELED WARE,

Bought for Spot Cash at 1-3 Its Value.

These goods are manufactured by Lalace & Grosjean, largest manufacturers of Granite and Blue and White Enameled Ware in the world. They excel all other makes for strength and durability, as each piece is covered with three distinct coats of granite enamel.

Note the size of every utensil wanted and Nou will agree that we sell each piece for not more than half its regular price.

In justice to other merchants we will say that we cannot duplicate the prices we quote below after this lot has been disposed of:

· You Men! Dot this down in your memory.

The Best Scarfs you'll find anywhere in the United States at 50c are to be only 44c at the Palais Royal. And $1 shall buy six pairs of Best 25c Haif Hose. Test us, tomorrow.

Ladies will neither study their health nor economy, in further delaying the purchase of a wrap.

Before writing this announcement we became thoroughly acquainted with the garments being offered you at the various establishments, and ask you to test the following claims: The claim is made, in big letters, that the Palais Royal's $7.98 Jackets are better - better - than any elsewhere at $10.

Think of only $7.98 for Superior English Mel-ton Jackets, slik lined throughout. Taflor made, with new combination collar, correct sleeves, dou-ble-breasted by front, with slik braid military fastenings.

The claim is made that the Palais Royal's Imported Sample Jackets at $18 to $25 are $22.50 to $35 else=

LyWhile these are "exclusive" and none exactly like them can be bought elsewhere—we claim—we know—that equally stylish and equally good jackets are $22.50 to $35 elsewhere. We only claim to sell these samples at $18 to $25—we can't duplicate them at the prices.

The claim is also made that the Palais Roval's $6.98 Capes are better than any rivals at $7.50.

COurs are made of Black Clay Diagonal Cloth, silk lined throughout. Measure 26 to 30 inches in length, with 130 inches sweep. Velvet collar, 10 rows stitching around bottom.

The claim is made that the Palais Royal's $10.98 Cloth Suits equal the best elsewhere at $14.

TWe have made comparisons—will you? Ask for our Tallor-made Cheviot Sults. Two styles; one with box coat and fly front, the other tight fitting and double breasted. Body and skirt lined

And the claim is made that the equals of the Palais Royal's Sample Costumes at $22.50 to $37.50 are $30 to $50 elsewhere.

We don't pretend that these costumes can be gold regularly at the prices we now ask—we only point to the fact that we are at present en-abled to say $22.50 to $37.50 instead of $30 to $50. We claim that the Palais Royal's $6.98 Silk Dress Skirt is better than any 1x16....39c. rival at $7.98.

solation. Lotion. The evenly matched fields insure close contests, and there will probably be animated betting on more than half of them.

Great interest is being taken in the tournament, many inquiries having been receiv ed from well-known riders in various parts of Maryland, and it is probable that a num-ber of cracks will take part in the contest at the swinging rings.

The Chinese Legation.

Although the three years' official term of Mr. Yang Yu, the Chinese minister at Weshington, expired in July, no intimation yet been received at the legation in this city. This is not regarded as unusual, however, as it frequently happens that a minster's term is excended four and even five years if his work is satisfactory to the home government. While a successor to Mr. Yang Yu may be announced at any time, yet no credence is placed at the le-gation in the report from Victoria, B. C., of the possibility of the appointment of Wau
On Pong, erroneously described as a mili-tary attache, who met Li Hung Chang on his recent visit there.

Mr. Yen Nien, who recently arrived at Vancouver, B. C., from China, is not be-lieved to be intrusted with any business requiring his presence in Washington, but it is thought here that his mission is one of a commercial enaracter.

"I desire," says Dr. Toner in the codicil, "that all my books and papers of every description may be deposited in the Toner collection in the Library of Congress. Also the portrait of my mother, and all engravings that are in frames, as well as those of Washington and others, that the librarian of Congress may deem worthy of preservation in the Toner collection in the new library building. Also, all the silver and curios, medals, etc., in my own safe, and such things in the bookcase as John Brown's musquet, pike, and other things. I desire Mr. S. H. Kauffmann,

It is understood that while the bulk of the estate is left absolutely to Mr. James L. Toner, that gentleman and Mr. Justice Morris, the executor, will carry into effect the wishes and purposes of Dr. Toner, and that in due time the estate will be devoted to educational and scientific purposes, the views of Dr. Toner in that regard being well known, both to the devisee and legatee and to the executor. The estate is supposed to be worth nearly $100,000.
